<sup>2</sup> Editors require authors to disclose individual contributions i.e. the information, who is the author of concepts, principles, methods, the protocol used in the preparation of publication, etc. The main responsibility for preparation of the article's text is held by corresponding author.

<sup>3</sup> Ghostwriting refer to the case if someone has made a substantial contribution to the publication, without disclosing his participation as one of the authors, or without mentioning his/her role in the acknowledgments in the publication. With guest Authorship (honorary Authorship) we have to do when the author's contribution is negligible or does not have a place, and is included in the authorship.
